MOTION:

SECOND:

VOTE:

Mr. Seesselberg said that there is no reason to go into executive session and he turned the microphone over to Dr. Lishak.

Dr. Lishak said, as you can see on tonight's agenda, of the faculty and staff listed are receiving their assignments for the 2018-2019 school year, pending Board of Education approval. All of the teachers and staff assignments are recommended in an effort to create stronger instructional teams across the district, ensuring our students have the best possible opportunity for success. The administrative team, comprised of central office administration, building administration, and department supervisors didn't make these decisions halfheartedly. All recommendations were made based on what we believe are the best instructional plans for improving student achievement. In addition to the administrative team, Dr. Lishak said that she met with the South Plainfield Education Association President and Vice President, Mrs. Joffe and Mrs. Doyan to discuss the rationale for the moves and the district plan for improving student achievement by building strong academic teams districtwide as well as the need to support our teachers through training and professional development. We discussed the opportunities to utilize our talented teachers in the academic areas we felt would best serve our students and apply their experiences as educators.

Dr. Lishak said that she cannot try to deceive you and pretend Mrs. Joffe and Mrs. Doyan were in agreement from the start, and in some cases, at the end but they were willing to listen to the rationale behind the moves. In addition, Dr. Lishak said that she has to admit there were a couple of times we went back and forth but as professionals, we discussed the issues and concerns and made adjustments as needed in the best interests of our students and for that she thanked them both for their professionalism.

Dr. Lishak said that as an administrative team, we believe the realignment of our teachers have created the best possible prospects for student success districtwide. By building stronger academic teams we have provided opportunities for our faculty to collaborate with each other and rely on and share their experiences in various grade levels and in academic courses to develop a strong foundation for student learning.

Dr. Lishak said that she realizes that it is difficult and change is scary but change is also necessary for growth and growth is good, both student growth as well as professional growth. It is our intention as a district to provide the best possible opportunity for our students and teachers to achieve success.

The South Plainfield School District Mission and Vision statement is read at the start of each board meeting. Students are the focus of the South Plainfield Public Schools. We will provide a dynamic, rigorous, relevant and technology enriched curriculum guided by the New Jersey Student Learning Standards. Our Mission is to develop lifelong learners who are prepared to succeed in a global and diverse society. We are resolved to educate the whole child, instilling the desire within the student to question and to become divergent thinkers who can achieve their fullest potential. Dr. Lishak said that she is confident this realignment of faculty and staff will allow our students to achieve their fullest potential.

V. COMMENTS ON AGENDA ITEMS ONLY

A. Agenda Additions and/or Deletions

Mr. Seesselberg said that there was one modification under item VI. A., item 275. There is no transfer. The employee is staying at Grant School so please modify your agenda, delete Middle School and delete transfer from Grant School.

Mrs. Boyle said that she thought there were two other changes that we received. Dr. Lishak said that they are in bold. There was an error in one of the three that were in bold. One of the three is still listed as a transfer and it was not.

B. Public Comments (Agenda Items Only)

Diana Joffe, SPEA, said that she was sorry that we came in at the tail end of Dr. Lishak's report and she said that she appreciates her comments. Mrs. Joffe said that, as you all know, there is a clause in our collective bargaining agreement that states, "Involuntary transfers are legal". It also states that those employees affected by this language have the right to a meeting with the Superintendent or designee. A meeting is defined as a place where information is discussed between two or more people and a solution is found. The meetings that our teachers were invited to by their principals consisted of nothing much more than them telling a teacher that they are being transferred to such and such a school or such and such a class because it is for the best interest of the kids. They did not receive much more of an explanation than that. Mrs. Joffe said that she has the phone records and the scars to attest to that. Those reasons given by the principals were shallow, perfunctory, and evasive at best. These teachers are professionals and they deserved more than that. There was no conversation about scores, student/teacher performance or the truth. The chain of command was less than orderly and by the end of the day there was chaos versus orderly transition. Again, my members deserve more than that. We all understood the importance of scores and performance and if scores and performance are the reasons then be up front and truthful with my members. They can handle it. They're professionals. If you find that teacher performance or scores are lacking then Mrs. Joffe said she is here to tell you that you should have communicated, the principals should have communicated this directly to my members. They are bright, they are well educated and they should be respected. Mrs. Joffe is asserting that the districts display of personal and communicational skills were lacking in this incident and she knows that you can handle this as well.

Mrs. Joffe said that after all of this happened, there were several conversations and they went back and forth and they come to an agreement and Dr. Lishak did personally go to all of the schools and she communicated to all of the teachers who wanted to speak with her. Also, there was some transfers that she realized after we spoke that had to be remediated. And in working together it worked out well and Mrs. Joffe said that she is glad that it finally did. Mrs. Joffe said that it is a lesson learned and she hopes that we all have gotten something out of it. She said that not everybody is happy that they have to have transfers. We know that they are legal but we just wanted that explanation in a different manner. Mrs. Joffe thanked the Board.

Dr. Lishak thanked Mrs. Joffe for the words and said that she doesn't want them to think that this is just being said to be said and it's forgotten. In the event that we do have to make transfers in the future it will be handled differently.

Tara Soto said that she is a parent of two boys at Franklin Elementary School. She said that one of her son's had the privilege of being taught by the Franklin School teachers being transferred or changing grade levels. She said that she has worked closely with these teachers for many years. She said that these teachers will remain nameless because the administration took away their identity. She said that these teachers taught her boys a love of education and to never give up on themselves. Language Arts did not come easy for her oldest, yet the teacher being transferred made modifications and pushed him beyond his limits. She said that he didn't have a 504 or an IEP yet she sat with him and individually instructed him and he succeeded because of her dedication. Ms. Soto said that she is proud to say that he is high honors over at Grant School.

Ms. Soto said, on the contrary, academics come very easy to her younger son. Unfortunately, that didn't help him from suffering from school anxiety. She said that her doctors and therapists say that he needs to be challenged more and that keeping his mind busy is what works. She said that multiple sports and signing him up for a very expensive technology camp this summer are a few of the things that she does as a mother to help ease his anxious mind. Ms. Soto said that it wasn't until this school year that she opened up to his teacher and she welcomed the news with open arms. She spent a lot of time, phone calls and e-mails, about her son and making recommendations for him to succeed mentally at Franklin School. Ms. Soto said that one day she received an e-mail from his teacher that said she thought her son is gifted. She said that it was her that saw something in her son that doctors have only been pushing towards. It was her who was pushing for her son to get everything he needs next year at Grant. She's built a foundation of confidence in her son that has put his anxiety at bay, his anxiety that almost became depression. Just as her son received the confidence that he needed to battle his anxiety, his teacher's confidence was ripped away.

Ms. Soto said that these teachers are not defined by a test score based on a few hours of a student's life. They are defined by the overall academic success of their students and confidence that their students possess. They are defined by the constant parent communication and emotional support. They are defined by volunteer hours and commitment to a wonderful Girls on the Run program. That's proof of a good teacher. It's beyond a score. They are defined by their dedication to Franklin School. A school that is a second home to her children and was consistent.

Ms. Soto said that she happens to be an educator for the past 14 years and she has had perfect state test scores for seven of those years. She said that in her Board of education they say to live in the three's and vacation in the four's. She said that she guesses that she lives in the four's. She said that this does not define her as a better educator than anyone being transferred. She said that as educators, we do what we have to do to meet the individual needs of our students. It is not a job, it is a career and it is life. There are many factors that take effect into a child's test. You need to think about their home life, their test jitters. Maybe they are an inclusion student and can't meet the modifications that PARCC gives. You have to think about the children that woke up feeling ill that morning or just don't care about a State test because they know it doesn't affect promotion and it doesn't affect grades. She said that maybe the student forgot to take their medication that morning. She said that no one thinks of that and instead these educators are given a number and their name is taken away, their identity is taken away. Ms. Soto thanked the Board.

Tyler Spina, 133 Daniel Street, said that he has a teacher named Ms. Tuohy and she is a great teacher. He said that she is honest, treats other fairly and is kind. He said that she teaches second grade and that she is not happy that she is getting moved to Kindergarten. He said that she wants to stay in second grade and is not fond of being moved. Mr. Spina said that he is here to say that he hopes that she can stay in second grade so that she is happy for the rest of her career.

Lynda Toczynski said that her son is leaving Franklin this year but when he first started in the South Plainfield School District, he went to Future Stars where he was classified, he is autistic. When he left Future Stars they took away his classification. She that back then she was naïve and uneducated in everything and she let them take it away. She said that it wasn't until her son went into second grade where his amazing teacher helped her fight to get his IEP back. She said the Special Education Department broke so many laws. They came back with a decision that he was classified and then took it away the next day. They gave him the testing after they came back with the results and told her in May that he wouldn't get classification. Mrs. Toczynski said that this teacher went through hell with her to fight to get what he needed. He wasn't failing academically but he was under his desk and in her closet sixty percent of the day. This teacher had no aide in her classroom. She was a single teacher dealing with everything and she took the time to get to know her son and to see how special he was. He is autistic and he has anxiety. He has a lot of issues but she took the time.

Mrs. Toczynski said that she knows the children that will be coming up through special education and she is being torn away from what she knows and where she can do the most help. She said that you think that she will help where she is being moved but they are doing well where they are. She said that test scores are nothing. She said that her 7th grader does not test well. He does great in the classroom but put a test in front of him and he can't do it.

Mrs. Toczynski said, who's to say all these tests that you are marking them on were given the same in every classroom. What happens if one teacher lets the students read the tests and write the answers but another teacher is reading the questions to them. Tests are nothing. You test the special education kids. You take them out of the classroom and test them but the issues they have are in the classroom. It is disgusting what you are doing and you think you are doing it for the right reasons but you are not. She said that her son is proof that teacher was an amazing teacher and she thinks you are all wrong and you need to re-think things.

Kristen Busch, 416 Dolores Avenue, said that her son is at Kennedy School and he has had amazing teachers in the three years that he has been there. She said that he does have some special needs and they have been worked with but that her problem is the class size. She said that there are at least 24 students in both second grade classes and because he is a good kid and he is a kind kid and doesn't have outrageous behavior problems, a lot of time he gets swept under the rug and that is not his teacher's fault. When you are in a room with twenty-something kids it is hard to focus where you need to. It's not fair to the teacher and it's not fair to the students whether they have issues or not. Ms. Busch said that none of them are getting the education and the support that not only they deserve but that she knows that South Plainfield can give them. She said that this is her son's third year in school and all three years have been jam packed classrooms. She said that she volunteers in the class so she sees it first-hand. It is hard for the teachers and it is hard for the kids and this is something that needs to come under consideration. She said that this is something that she has talked with Mr. Hajduk about and it is something that she wanted to say this evening.

Keirsten Bohl Ravi, Franklin School, also 566 Franklin Avenue, said that she is a mom to a 6th grader and a 3rd grader who is also a Franklin School with her. She said that she has been teaching at Franklin School since she came back from her daughter being born. She said, as a side note, that she also attended Franklin School so it is like home to her. She said when she had her kids she felt so blessed to be able to have them there with her. She said that she saw her daughter through her five years there and her son will be a fourth grader next year and she is not going to be there with him. Mrs. Ravi said that aside from her side note, as an educator, she feels that she has always given her all to her students. They've always been her priority and it means more than anything to her to see them succeed and this year there have been a million successes in her classroom. She said that those successes may not have been on that day when they that test but she could tell so many different stories and so many different triumphs that we have come across this year. She said that kids that came in unable to read are now reading and they are happy and excited to be read. She said that children with special needs who are flourishing and are happy tell her every day that they don't want to leave and that is what it is all about.

Mrs. Ravi said that she knows that she will do a good job anywhere that she goes but that Franklin is her home and it always has been. She said that she hopes that we are not just thinking about test scores but the good of everything. She said that she's not sure how all of this will play out or how it's supposed to help when we are disrupting teachers from the colleagues that they work well with. She said that she wants you to know that her students are more than a test score and she is proud of them and she is proud to be their teacher. She said that she hopes you realize that this is a community, a family and to rip people out of that just doesn't feel right. We are raising these children to be good productive members of our community, too, and then we don't treat each other well. Mrs. Ravi said she hopes that is considered.

Special Business Meeting
June 6, 2018

DISCUSSION

Mrs. Boyle thanked Dr. Lishak for the re-directives that she changed today. She said that she understands that changes to staff assignment are for the district plan for strengthening student achievement. There are transfers that are made in the school from grade to grade which are not listed which she learned do not need to be listed but she just found out about three of them tonight. Mrs. Boyle said that we have not had a personnel meeting in the past six months even though they were requested. The Board did not collaborate or were a part of these decision-making processes and the plans for strengthening the move for teachers. These decisions were already made and put in place before the Board was made aware of those movement. Mrs. Boyles said that supporting the Superintendent’s recommendations are important in this district and her concerns, which were discussed with the Superintendent, are concerns with regards to the teachers and the staff notifications. The well-being of the staff who are an iatrical part of this process as well as scores are also important. Mrs. Boyle said that in her opinion she would like to see the administration meet with the teachers and the staff at least a month before a proposed move so that the teachers fell that they are supported and they fell that they were given ample time and opportunities to discuss the moves.

The vote for items 1-445, excluding items 30, 51, 132 and 298 is as follows:

MOTION: Mr. Giannakis SECOND: Mr. Pennisi VOTE: 9-0
Mrs. Anesh abstained on 311. Mrs. Boyle abstained on 35. Mr. Cassio abstained on 54.
Mr. Giannakis abstained on 114.

The vote for items 30, 51, 132 and 298 is as follows:

MOTION: Mr. Giannakis SECOND: Mr. Pennisi VOTE: 8-1
Mrs. Boyle voted no.

Mrs. Boyle said that these are listed on the original agenda so if the changes are made and the teachers are okay with those changes then she supports that.

Mr. Seesselberg asked if she is working off of the agenda that was sent today. Mrs. Boyle said yes, so if they changed and those were already discussed then she is okay but not all of the changes were made. Mr. Seesselberg said that the only one that was changed from the noon agenda today was 275, everything else was as sent this afternoon. Mrs. Boyle said okay, then what she read off is how she stands except for number 275.

VIII. PUBLIC COMMENTS

IX. BOARD MEMBER COMMENTS

Mrs. Boyle asked why preschool and latchkey parents who are registered in the district and remain in the district for preschool and latchkey have to keep paying the same registration fee each year. Ms. Malyska said thank you for bringing that up. She said that we actually just reconsidered this because it is a repetitive fee so what's going to happen is when families register for the first time, it will be a one-time registration fee and when they register again it will be a placeholder fee that will be deducted from their first month's tuition so they won't be charged that registration fee again and again. Mrs. Boyle said thank you because that was a concern amongst parents so thank you for reconsidering that.

Mrs. Boyle said that when the district provides home school programs to our students, we need to let those students know about events, scholarships and graduation information so hopefully we can do that in the future. Dr. Lishak asked if she meant students who are on home instruction. Dr. Lishak said that they receive the notifications through Noviance and through our e-mails. The only thing they don't get is that they are not here for the morning announcement but they do get everything else that is sent home because they are registered on the system. Mrs. Boyle said thank you that she was told by parents that they don't receive that but Mrs. Boyle said that she will tell them they have to check.

X. ADJOURNMENT
